To Whom it may concern;

My name is Basil E. Pearson, DC, and I own Pearsonstacrail, LLC.

I started my online business in 2013 selling through EBay. Needless to say it started slowly. Through a business acquaintance, I was introduced to Dustin Vaughn Warncke. He said that Dustin ran a website business, plus many other endeavors, but said that he was a good , honest and forth-right individual, and that I should give him a call. I did, and was pleasantly surprised that the information I had gotten was accurate.

I am new to the electronic age, so laid out all my misgivings, misunderstandings, and ignorance of the computer age. I told Dustin that I thought eBay was doing just fine, but he said that a website would be a better base to build from. Was he ever right. He put together a website for me that has done nothing short of taking off like a rocket. Dustin did all the work, as I knew nothing of how a website really worked. I gave him the info he wanted, via email and phone calls, and he put together a great , professional website. He maintains it for me, and updates it as I request with new information. I couldn't be happier with his expertise.

His rates are more than reasonable, and he has been a joy to work with. Things are done efficiently, quickly, and accurately. He is now even broadening my exposure with electronic media, that I know nothing about and don't want too.

I can leave it all up to Dustin, and I know it will be done in a timely, professional manner, that I don't have to worry about.

His tag line of, Yours to Count On, is so true. I couldn't have picked a better phrase for him myself.
